

Robyn

Robyn has been swimming for about 6 years. Her favourite stroke is butterfly. Robyn loves the fact that swimming is a sport that everyone can enjoy. She also loves that swimming is both fun and competitive at the same time. Through Para Storm Swim Club, Robyn has learned that you can have a disability and still be a successful athlete. Robyn has competed at many larger scale swim meets including Defi Sportif in April 2012 in Montreal, Can-Am championships in December 2014 in Edmonton, Western Canada Summer Games in August 2015 in Fort McMurray and the Canadian Paralympic Trials in April 2016 in Toronto. Previously Robyn was active in junior curling, but has since focused her time and energy on swimming. Outside of the pool Robyn enjoys reading and drawing. Her favourite book is “The Hitchhiker’s Guide to the Galaxy” by Douglas Adams and her favourite song is “Hollywood” by RAC.

